CALL FOR PAPERS

www.InternetworkingIndonesia.org

Paper Submission Guidelines

Manuscript Language: The primary language of the Internetworking Indonesia Journal (IJ) is English due to its international readership. However the IJ also accepts and publishes papers in Bahasa Indonesia.

Manuscript Submission Process:

- Manuscripts should be submitted according to the IEEE Guide for authors, and will be refereed in the standard way.
- Manuscript pages should not exceed 7 pages of the IEEE 2-column format. It should be submitted as a Microsoft-Word file, using the IJ Template document which can be found at the www.InternetworkingIndonesia.org website.
- Manuscripts submitted to the IJ must not have been previously published or committed to another publisher under a copyright transfer agreement, and must not be under consideration by another journal.
- Papers previously published at conferences can be submitted to the IJ, but must be revised so that it has significant differences from the conference version.
- Authors of accepted papers are responsible for the Camera Ready Copy formatted using the same IJ Template format.
- Authors are advised that no revisions of the manuscript can be made after acceptance by the Editor for publication. The benefits of this procedure are many, with speed and accuracy being the most obvious.
- Please email your papers (or questions) to: editor@InternetworkingIndonesia.org

Paper Types: Please review the descriptions below and identify the submission type best suited to your paper:

- Research Papers: Papers that report on results emanating from research projects, both theoretical and practical in nature.
- Short papers: Short research papers provide an introduction to new developments or advances regarding on-going work.
- Policy Viewpoints: Policy Viewpoints explore competing perspectives in the Indonesian policy debate that are informed by academic research.
- Teaching Innovation: Teaching Innovation papers explore creative uses of information technology tools and the Internet to improve learning and education in Indonesia.
- Book Reviews: A review of a book, or other book-length document, such as a government report or foundation report.

Topics of Interest: The IJ welcomes and strongly encourages submissions based on interdisciplinary approaches focusing on ICT & Internet development and its related aspects in the Indonesian context. These include (but not limited to) information technology, communications technology, computer sciences, electrical engineering, and the broader social studies regarding ICT and Internet development in Indonesia.
