Publication Policies

Open Access Publication Policy: The Internetworking Indonesia Journal (IJ) provides open access to all of its content on the principle that making research freely available to the public supports a greater global exchange of knowledge. This follows the philosophy of the Open Journal Systems (see the Public Knowledge Project at pkp.sfu.ca). The IJ issues are published electronically (PDF) and there are no subscription fees. Such access is associated with increased readership and increased citation of an author's work.

No publication fees: There is no publication fees to authors for publishing in the IJ. This is consistent with the open access philosophy adopted by the IJ.

Copyright Policy: The IJ adopts the Creative Commons Attribution Non-Commercial No Derivatives (by-nc-nd) license. The IJ is an academic journal dedicated to the open exchange of information. For this reason, the IJ is freely available to individuals and institutions. Copies of this journal or articles in this journal may be distributed for research or educational purposes free of charge and without permission. However, commercial use of the IJ website or the articles contained herein is expressly prohibited without the written consent of the editor.

Authors who publish in the IJ will release their articles to the IJ under the Creative Commons Attribution Non-Commercial No Derivatives (by-nc-nd) license. This license allows anyone to copy and distribute the article for non-commercial purposes provided that appropriate attribution is given. For details of the rights authors grants users of their work, see the "human-readable summary" of the license, with a link to the full license:

Manuscript Submission Guidelines

Language: The primary language of the Internetworking Indonesia Journal is English due to its international readership. Note that the IJ does not accept requests for the translation of submitted manuscripts.

Format: Papers should be submitted using the IJ Template document for MS-Word. The IJ format is derived from the popular IEEE 2-column text format. The IJ template can be found on the IJ website.

Length of manuscript: Papers submitted to the IJ should not exceed 7 pages of the IJ 2-column format.

Originality: Papers submitted to the IJ must not have been previously published or committed to another publisher under a copyright transfer agreement, and must not be under consideration by another journal. Papers previously published at conferences can be submitted to the IJ, but must be revised so that it has significant differences from the conference version.

Ethics Statement: Authors wishing to submit papers to the IJ are requested to read the IJ Publication Ethics Statement, which can be found on the IJ website.
